

www.viomlifestyles.com

Viom Lifestyle is a collaboration between top interior designers with 40+ years of combined expertise who have designed exclusive timeless, quality pieces that are custom manufactured. It is our mission to craft high-quality furniture using materials that last.

When our designers embarked time and time again to find timeless, quality furniture within our local shores and without traveling overseas, their search left them frustrated. With this in mind, they joined hands to launch Viom Lifestyles – a word that literally means Reaching for the Sky.

Our collections are inspired by various lifestyles and customs followed in different countries, following the latest trends of different kinds of furniture curated globally. We have used a structured and theme-based approach to cater from luxury to modern and contemporary styles.

We use a zero-inventory supply chain fuelled by made-to-order manufacturers to help combat waste and minimize its impact on the planet. For you, the consumer, the process is simple: You choose your furniture style, choose the fabric, choose your colours and Viom will process your order and start making a custom piece just for you.

OUR COMMITMENT

To make bespoke furniture that's suited to modern living and obsess over finer points, so you don't have to worry about finishes or the final finishing touch.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is simple – to offer you design-driven custommade luxurious furniture, handcrafted to optimal standards and delivered in time

MEGARA COLLECTION

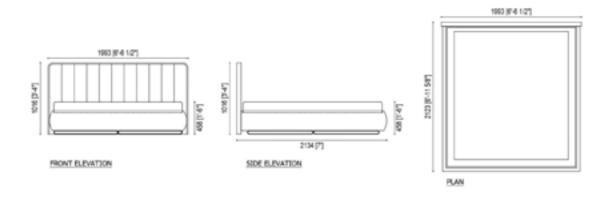

The Megara includes a spherical backrest that flows gently into the armrest and produces a polished detail right before reaching the seat, making it an exercise in design, refinement, and essentiality. It creates a sense of complete and ageless beauty. The collection is completed by a left/right corner element, a central element with two chairs, a significant element with a left/right ottoman, a low table in American walnut, and a textile framework. The many components and extensive upholstery options provide a wide variety of options and customization: a couch that adapts readily to different sized areas and can meet any demand. It was designed for fans of traditional seating arrangements with a twist of individuality.

A Megara bed comes alive in your home with a wide array of leathers and high-end veneers. If desired, it may be upholstered in fabric or foam material, giving it a delightful feel. The vertical and horizontal lines communicate in a timeless language. The metal curved bed supports are an unexpected but delightful twist to the all-encompassing design of the bed.

CALABRIA COLLECTION

The Calabria range's slender and delicate lines enhance every environment and make it unique, elegant, and modish. This collection displays a minimal and technical interpretation of modern thought with a youthful tone. A trending combination of Earthy Teak Veneer and grey-beige paint offset by matt gold metal is used to enhance the collection by our designers.

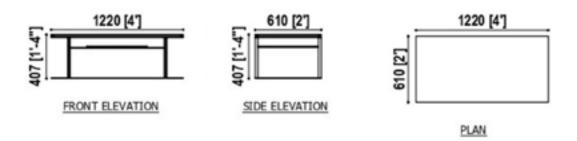

Bring your home a brand new concept of grace and functionality with this multi-level console. The metal legs of the console reflect perfect linear lines. It has many uses to showcase decorative items for the living room or just simply a large floral cascading arrangement.

Refined elegance and a classic design characterize the Calabria centre table. The slim metal legs look almost divided, separate, and join to form the base support for a large veneered surface.

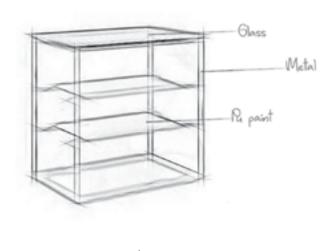

A multi-level side table with slender lines, modernistic thought, and a rectangular base gives a sleek strength to your corners. The open shelves allow you ample storage space for your essentials like table clocks, newspapers, magazines, and decorative objects.
